USA: the story so far, Part 1: Great Depression, Hoover, Roosevelt, and WWII

The Wall Street Crash happened in _____. This led to the G_____ D_____ which resulted in high levels of _____ leading to significant p_____. List 3 impacts of the Great Depression: • . • . • .	President H_____ was a R_____. He was criticised for following a policy of r_____ i_____. His reputation was damaged by the way the Bonus Marchers were dealt with. What happened here?...	Hoover did put some successful policies in place, though. For example: The Hawley-Smoot Tariff Act helped to protect… Taxes were cut by… The Emergency Relief Act… The Home Loan Bank Act…	In 1932 there was a change of president. Roosevelt was a D_____ and took a different approach. His main policy was the N_____ D_____. The main idea behind this was the 3 Rs… R = R = R =
What did Roosevelt do with banks? What were the Alphabet Agencies? Give an example…	In 1934 there were still _____ people unemployed. Something extra was needed = the Second New Deal put more money into building (which created jobs) and improved working conditions and pay. The most important element was the S_____ S_____ A_____. For the first time, this showed the government was…	Some people criticised the New Deal: Individuals didn't like it because… Some Republicans didn't like it because…	Reasons for recovery from the Great Depression: • Early policies of President Hoover led to… • Roosevelt and the New Deal meant that… • WWII resulted in…
Roosevelt's plan in WWII was to 'out-resource' the enemy. The War Production Board oversaw this. By 1944 the US produced… Increase in industry led to more…	By the 1950s the USA was in a period of p_____. More jobs meant people had more _____. Cheaper products meant people spent _____. Overall, this means that American society becomes richer! Changes in technology and new programmes in social welfare help this.	Many white families used their new found affluence to move to the suburbs. The first planned suburb was called…. New homes had a lot of new items, such as: This was part of the idea of the A_____ D_____. However, many women felt…	Not everyone benefitted from post-war affluence and prosperity. Many people still lived in p_____, especially… In what ways was life unequal in 1950s America?