

Germany in transition: the story so far, Part 1

The Weimar Government

The Weimar Government was set up in _____ following the abdication of _____. Positives about this new constitution were: Negatives about the Weimar Constitution were:	The Treaty of Versailles was _____ by many Germans. They felt the Weimar Government had _____ the German army. The 'blame' clause meant that... This was a problem for the Weimar Government because...	The Weimar Government faced many rebellions, for example the S_____ U_____ in 19__. This was a communist uprising with the aim of... Was this rebellion successful?	A further rebellion in 1920 was the K_____ P_____. This was prompted when the Weimar Government announced they would... Was this rebellion successful?
By 1923, the Weimar Government were unable to pay... This led to France and Belgium... This is known as the R_____ C_____ and it ultimately led to...	The definition of hyperinflation is.... Give 3 impacts of hyperinflation: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>•</li> <li>•</li> <li>•</li> </ul>	Gustav Stresemann was appointed as Foreign Secretary in 1923. He also served as Chancellor. He led a number of strategies to recover from hyperinflation and boost the international reputation of Germany....	Economic Recovery... Dawes Plan and US loans: Retenmark: Young Plan:
International reputation... Locarno Pact: League of Nations: Kellogg-Briand Pact:	Give examples of strategies helping Germany: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>•</li> <li>•</li> </ul> Give examples of strategies not working in all areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>•</li> <li>•</li> </ul>	Key dates check (there could be more than one event per year)... 1918: 1919: 1920: 1923:	What state was Germany in by: 1923? 1929?