

How useful?? How reliable??
Using sources in GCSE History analysis questions...

How useful is this source?	How reliable is this source?
This source tells us that...	This source tells us that...
This is useful to an historian because it gives...	The source is created by (the author is)...
The source gives the historian a narrow / broad view because...	This makes it a more / less reliable source because...
The source is created by (the author is)...	The intended audience of the source is...
They are writing from a _____ perspective. This makes it a more / less useful source because...	This makes it a more / less reliable source because...
The intended audience of the source is...	The type of source is / The source is a...
This makes it a more / less useful source because...	This makes it a more / less reliable source because...
The source is useful because...	The purpose of the source is / The source was created because...
However, there are limits to how useful the source is because...	This makes it a more / less reliable source because...
This means that, overall the source is _____ useful.	Overall, the source is _____ reliable because...