

Peace & Conflict Exam Questions

	Specimen 1	Specimen 2	2018	2019	2020	2021
1 mark	Which one of the following best expresses the religious ideal that there should be no violence in the world?	Which one of the following is not a reason for war?	Which one of the following means to become friends again after a relationship has broken down?	Which one of the following gives the meaning of pacifism?	Which one of the following describes what is right and fair, as required by the law?	Which one of the following describes why having nuclear weapons might prevent war?
2 mark	Give two ways in which religious believers help victims of war.	Give two religious beliefs that show that violence is wrong.	Give two reasons why many religious believers are against violent protest.	Give two ways that religious believers can work for peace.	Give two reasons why most religious people are against terrorism.	Give two of the criteria for a Just War.
4 mark	Explain two contrasting beliefs in contemporary British society about weapons of mass destruction.	Explain two similar religious beliefs about pacifism.	Explain two contrasting religious beliefs about nuclear weapons.	Explain two similar religious beliefs about reconciliation.	Explain two contrasting religious beliefs in contemporary British society about pacifism.	Explain two similar religious beliefs about peace-making.
5 mark	Explain two religious beliefs about forgiveness.	Explain two religious beliefs about justice.	Explain two religious beliefs which show that all acts of terrorism are wrong.	Explain two reasons why religious people help victims of war.	Explain two reasons why some religious people support the just war theory.	Explain two religious beliefs about violent protest.
12 mark	'War is never right.'	'There are no good reasons for countries to possess nuclear weapons.'	'War is the best way to solve problems between countries.'	'Religious believers should never fight in a war.'	'It is wrong for any country to have weapons of mass destruction.'	'Greed or just wanting a better life are never good reasons for going to war.'